Justice

TRUE JUSTICE is not always written in the code books of the world. Justice does not depend upon precedent, for in its real sense it is a working of the natural law of compensation, which no man can violate without paying to the uttermost farthing. Sometimes justice is a laggard, but always is it sure.

Like justice, credit is the working out of natural law. Even the seed takes a credit of time before it gives the harvest. Credit is as old as the universe, and will endure. Therefore, no one should be hesitant over making use of their credit to their own betterment or the enhancement of the joy of living.

This store stands ready to present you with all of its credit facilities, that you need not go without those things that make for better homes, happier hours, creature-comforts.

RESCUES FAMILY FROM RUSS REDS

Dallas Youth Brings Mother and Sisters Back Home.

Braves Many Perils to Reach
Relatives in Russia.

Tells of Horrors Caused by Bolshevik Rule.

DALLAS (Tex.) Nov. 5.—Harry Harris, a young Russian, who has been in business in Dallas for several years, braved the dangers of a trip to his native land in search of his near relatives and has just returned here with his mother and three sisters.

January of this year Young Harris received a letter from his mother saying his father had died from lack of food and attention and that she and her children were in a destitute condition. He decided immediately to go to Russia and rescue his family from the menaces that surrounded them.

BY ROUND-ABOUT ROUTE. Arriving in France he made his way to Minsk, in so-called White Russia, where his mother and sisters were when the last letter he received was written. He had to make his way into Russia in a round-about route, going from France to Switzerland, thence to Austria, to Warsaw, in Poland and then to Minsk.

At Minsk he found that his mother and sisters had left their old home there after the death of his father. From old friends, he found they had gone to Lithuania, to the home of his mother's parents.

He had hardly gained this information when the Bolsheviks, advancing on Poland in May, captured Minsk and advanced westward, leaving him behind their battle lines. During his stay in Minsk young Harris got a real taste of Bolshevik rule.

DEMAND HIDDEN GOLD. "The first law they made was for every one to turn in their gold or silver or be shot," he said. "Then a search was made and thousands were killed when hidden gold was found in their houses. After 4 o'clock in the afternoon no citizen was allowed in the street. Only Bolshevik soldiers could be outside."

Harris said that the Bolshevik regime took children 5 to 6 years old away from their parents and placed them in schools where they are being educated as Bolsheviks. He believes the big problem of the future will be caused by these children, who will grow up inculcated with Bolshevik ideas.

"The Bolsheviks sacrificed everything for their soldiers," Harris continued. "The women and children are the sufferers. The Bolsheviks don't want conditions to be as they are, but they do not dare disobey the orders of the military authorities."

Harris believes that the Bolshevik regime is due to break up in a short time, and doubts if it will survive the winter.

HARD TO WORK PASSAGE. "I got out of Minsk as soon as I could," he said. "I was sent further east into Russia, toward Moscow, riding on a Bolshevik train, with

Rob. Pain Right Out with Small
Trial Bottle of Old
"St. Jacobs Oil."

Kidney causes Backache? No! They have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

Rub old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.—[Advertisement] cattle cars for coaches. The engine burned wood for fuel. Every few hours the passengers would have to pile off and chop wood for the engine. And it usually would take a couple of hours to warm up the engine to start again. Then when the wood was burned up we would have to get off again to chop more. If you refused to chop, you didn't ride."

Harris stopped at a town called Raratov, not far from Moscow. The Bolsheviks were in control. But he found conditions more settled. There was no money and if there had been any it would have been useless. Food was issued on a card system. Clothing was the scarcest thing in the country.

LOOK TOWARDS AMERICA. Throughout Bolshevik Russia Harris found the people were "looking to America like we look toward heaven."

"American goods can be sold there for ten times the price of English articles of exactly the same kind," he said. "The people hate England, although the English are preparing to flood the country with their goods. There is a big opportunity for Americans in Russia, for the people want American goods."

Harris spent four weeks in the town near Moscow. Conditions were bad. There was no sewage system, no doctors, because all were in the army. From this town he made his way to Riga, going through Lestland. From Riga he went to a town near Kovno, in Lithuania, where he found his mother and sisters.

"When I found them, they were in a little shack no bigger than my newsstand hole on Elm street," Harris said. "It was early in the morning and they were just getting up. They could not believe that I was really there. And when I told them I had come to take them back to America my mother and sisters thought they were in a dream."

It was several weeks before he could make arrangements through the American Consulate at Riga to sail with his family for America. In Riga, Harris said there were several pogroms against the Jews while he was there. The race hatred against the Jews still exists, he declared, although the new countries of this part of Europe are supposed to be thoroughly democratic and fair to all races.

GIVES STRENGTH OF PEACE-TIME ARMY.

ORGANIZATION PERFECTED UNDER BILL PASSED BY LAST SESSION OF CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The new tactical peace-time organization of the Regular Army, based on the Army reorganization bill, passed at the last session of Congress, was announced yesterday by Secretary of War Baker. It provides for one skeleton army in time of peace with a paper strength of 137,921 men.

An army corps, under the new organization, will consist of 28,944 men, an infantry division of 13,388 men, a cavalry division of 4,437 men, an artillery brigade of 18,116 men, and an artillery brigade of 6,118 men. The act providing for the new organization divided the country into nine corps areas and in time of war or general mobilization this division would result in three armies, each of 28,944 men.

According to a survey that has been made of the housing situation, several hundred additional residences will be required to supply homes for the families already here, and to relieve the crowded condition of the hotels, rooming-houses and private homes. The first shipment of knock-down houses will be accompanied by a crew of superintendents and skilled workmen, who will attend to the erection of the structures.

SHORTAGE OF HOUSES
WORRYING MEXICANS.

KNOCK-DOWN HOMES WILL BE IMPORTED TO CARE FOR THE HOMELESS.

EXCLUSIVE SERVICE. TAMPECO (Mex.) Nov. 8.—Housing conditions here have become so acute, due to the great influx of Americans, that steps have been taken to solve the problem by importing knock-down houses from the United States to accommodate the homeless people. Several of the largest old companies ordered many of the buildings, and many others were ordered by local real estate and general business interests.

According to a survey that has been made of the housing situation, several hundred additional residences will be required to supply homes for the families already here, and to relieve the crowded condition of the hotels, rooming-houses and private homes. FRIDAY EVE., NOV. 12
At Trinity Auditorium

The first performance by Ruth St. Denis and the Ruth St. Denis Concert Dancers last Friday night at Trinity Auditorium, which was the first appearance of these noted dancers in Los Angeles within five years, attracted the greatest audience ever present on any similar occasion in this city.

Unable to accommodate the thousands who sought admission at that time, a second and final concert will be given by Miss St. Denis and her company, with the addition of the talent of Ted Shawn, whose great popularity will arouse added interest.

The KNABE PIANO

which is used exclusively by Ruth St. Denis and her associate artists in all their work, will furnish the sole pianistic support for the pretentious musical and terpsichorean performance, displaying to unusual advantage the incomparable tone of "The World's Best Piano."

It Isn't Fur!

It's ribbon, and Callot has frayed and draped it to trim this brown broadcloth coat-trunk and prove that ribbons have lost some of their charm since the Victorian days of their greatest vogue. This is one model among the ten pages of Paris fashions in this number of Vogue; and among these ten pages are two which consider the pants.

For this is an economy number, and the woman who dresses on a limited income will find five pages for her special eye. The charming negligee that can be made of last season's evening gown; the blouse that is frivolous in effect, but practical in use; the gown that has a French air, but an American price; the net scarf that makes just the difference in an evening dress; they are all assembled in the new

For All Around the House

EVERY room in the house needs the brightening touch of Johnson's Prepared Wax. It will rejuvenate your furniture, woodwork, floors and linoleum—preserve the original finish—and give your home a bright, well-groomed appearance.

Johnson's Prepared Wax imparts a beautiful, artistic lustre of great durability. Its hard, dry, velvety polish will not show finger prints or collect dust.

JOHNSON'S Paste - Liquid - Powdered PREPARED WAX

Johnson's Prepared Wax polishes perfectly over any finish—varnish, shellac or oil. It forms a thin, protecting coat over the finish, similar to the service rendered by a piece of plate glass over a table or dresser top.

Johnson's Prepared Wax comes in three convenient forms—a form for every use:

Johnson's Paste Wax—for polishing floors of all kinds—wood, linoleum, tile, marble, etc.

Johnson's Liquid Wax—for polishing furniture, woodwork, leather goods and automobiles.

Johnson's Powdered Wax—immediately puts any floor in perfect condition for dancing.

CHEF ANSWERS MANY INQUIRIES

Gives Tested Recipes; Also

Places Expert Advice at the Disposal of All.

Tells How to Make Toothsome and Dainty Dishes.

BY A. L. WYMAN.

[Chef Wyman will give his tested and proved recipes for luncheons, dinners and special occasions, and any other instructions pertaining to food and cookery that the readers of The Times may ask for in this column every Wednesday. Address all requests to A. L. Wyman, 4222 1/2 Woodlawn avenue, Los Angeles. —Ed.]

Requests will be answered in the order that they are received through the mail.

One request is for many recipes for several different dishes. To answer this I would have to use a whole page, and as I am allowed but one column once a week, please signify the dish that you want recipe for and I will do my best to give you a good practical recipe.

C. C. J. of Upland, requests a recipe for Thousand Island dressing. One follows: Mix a half cup of mayonnaise, two tablespoons of French dressing, two teaspoons of chopped pimientos, one teaspoon of chopped olives and a half teaspoon of minced parsley in a bowl that has been rubbed with a clove of garlic.

E. C. R. of Beach, requests a recipe for French dressing. Place in a quart bottle two cloves of peeled garlic, one tablespoon of mustard, one tablespoon of salt, half teaspoon of white pepper, one teaspoon of paprika, full bottle of white wine or apple vinegar and two-thirds full of olive or good salad oil.

Put a slit in the cork, shake the bottle well and sprinkle the dressing over the salad. This will keep two or three weeks in a cold place. A tablespoon of tarragon vinegar or Worcestershire sauce is a nice addition.

A. L. C. of Los Angeles, wants to make the caramel used in my recipe for better nut cake. Place one cup of sugar in a iron frying pan on a hot stove and stir until the sugar is a light brown, add very carefully one cup of boiling water and stir until all the sugar is dissolved. When cold place in a bottle and use for decorating cakes, ice cream, cakes and to color soups and sauces.

J. J. of Torrance, asks for a California Thanksgiving menu. My suggestion follows:

California Roast Chicken
Salted Almonds, Ripe Olives, Celery
Cream of Watercress
Roast Stuffed Turkey, Apple or Walnut
Oyster Gravy Cranberry and Orange
Conserves
Banana Squash, Brown Butter Sauce
Sweet Potatoes, Southern Style
Hearts of Lettuce, St. Francis
Dressing
Hot Mince Pie, Fruit Sauce or Ice
Cream and Pansy Cakes
Oranges, Apples, Nuts, Cluster
Raisins

Some of the recipes are given below:

Cream of watercress: Place in a saucepan four tablespoons butter, heat and add two tablespoons flour, one and a half cups chicken stock and one and a half cups milk. Bring to a boil, add four cups well washed watercress and half a cup of butter. Strain, heat again and bind with two egg yolks mixed with half cup of cream. Season with salt and Cayenne pepper.

St. Francis salad dressing: Add to one-half cup of mayonnaise one half cup of chicken stock, one finely chopped sweet green pepper, four tablespoons finely chopped celery, one chopped hard-boiled egg, two teaspoons lemon juice, two tablespoons salad oil, and salt and paprika. Mix well. Good on all green salads.

Walnut dressing for turkey: Bake with skins on three medium onions for ten minutes. Remove the skins, chop very fine, add one cup finely chopped tart apple, two tablespoons melted butter, five cups fresh bread crumbs, one teaspoon thyme, one teaspoon marjoram, two teaspoons chopped parsley, one cup chopped walnut meats, salt and pepper.

In answer to A. R. E.'s inquiry: I have found the best way to remove skins from pimientos is to plunge them into hot oil, then rub skin off with a rough towel. Another way is to let them boil until the skin blisters and peel with a sharp knife.

R. M. Fullerton, wants recipe for cheese pie and date torte. Cheese pie: Mix four tablespoons melted butter with three cups dry cottage cheese, three-quarters cup sugar, one tablespoon corn starch, one cup cream, beaten, grated rind one lemon, three beaten egg yolks, one-quarter cup chopped blanched almonds and three beaten egg whites. Pour this mixture into a pie plate lined with cookie dough and bake in a moderate oven until a golden brown and well set.

Date torte: Rub to a smooth paste sixteens finely chopped dates and two tablespoons of lemon juice. Add to two whole eggs and six egg yolks, well beaten, one and a half cups of sugar and beat well. Add to the egg mixture the dates, three tablespoons grated chocolate, one teaspoon ground cinnamon, one teaspoon ground allspice and one cup cracker crumbs. Beat well and fold in the beaten whites of the six eggs. Bake in a spring form in a medium oven for forty-five minutes.

L. M. G. Long Beach, asks a recipe for molasses cookies. Beat to cream three-quarters cup butter and one cup sugar. Add one well beaten egg, one cup molasses and three-quarters cup of hot water. Sift four cups flour with one teaspoon soda, one teaspoon cinnamon, one-half teaspoon ginger and a half teaspoon allspice. Add to the first mixture, beat well and drop by spoon on a warm buttered baking pan. Bake in a quick oven.

J. D. C. of Santa, wants a recipe for whole wheat nut bread. Sift two cups whole wheat flour with three-quarters cup white flour, half teaspoon salt, four teaspoons baking powder and four tablespoons sugar. Add one beaten egg, one tablespoon melted shortening, three-quarters cup finely chopped nut meats and one cup milk. Mix well and mould in loaf. Bake one hour in slow oven.

Dining Suites and Separate Pieces at Lowered Prices

Savings of one-tenth to one-half in dining furniture are made possible because of our desire to close out a number of odd pieces, separate pieces and matched suites for various reasons, principal of which is the need for more floor space to show new goods that are arriving.

Here are two of the many special values in complete suites:

William and Mary Dining Suite, $475.00

Eleven pieces in walnut. Buffet, 54-inch round top, 8-foot extension table, side table, 6 chairs and arm chair. Special value at $475.00.

Colonial Windsor Suite, $450.00

Nine pieces finished in mahogany. Buffet, china closet, 48-inch round top extension table, 3 chairs and arm chair. Special value at $450.00. Fifth Floor.

If you need, or can use an extra buffet, china closet or serving table in the popular Period styles, you will be quite apt to find one to suit at half price. Here are two of the many special values in tables:

Dining Table in Oak, $38.75

William and Mary Period design, finished in Jacobean oak. 45-inch top that can be extended to 6 feet. Special $38.75.

45-inch Dining Tables, $48.75

Choice of mahogany or walnut finish. 45-inch top extends to 6 feet. Special value at $48.75.

Bedroom Suites and Separate Pieces at Reduced Prices

An entire floor of complete matched bedroom suites in various finishes and the newest Period styles from which any number of pieces may be chosen, offers special values that are exceedingly attractive. Here are a few instances of the savings:

8-Piece Bedroom Suite, $675.00

Chippendale Period style in mahogany. Dresser, Chiffonier, 4-4 Bed, Candle Stand, Dressing Table, Bench, Rocker and Chair for $675. Special. A saving of more than $100.

5-Piece Bedroom Suite, $485

—The finish is known as Italian walnut. The dresser is unusually large, having a 48-inch top surmounted by a mirror 36x28. —The chiffonier is also of ample proportions, having a width of 38 inches, depth of 21 and height from the floor of 54. A full size double bed, rocker and chair complete the suite, which is offered as a special value for a limited time at $485.

Here is an instance of the special values in separate pieces. The following pieces form part of a matched suite in ivory enamel finish. The style is Colonial with pretty intarsia decorations. You save several dollars on each piece.

Vanity Dresser, $79.00

Chiffonier with glass, $43.65

Dressing Table, $42.30

Stand Table, $10.80

Twin Beds, each, $34.75

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

By Mrs. Thom.
Mrs. Isaac Ridgeway Trimble of Montecito is to be complimented at a luncheon that Mrs. Cameron Brkine Thom give on Friday at Wilddally, her West Adams street home. Lady Popham-Young is to be among the sixteen guests. Mrs. Thom is planning a series of luncheons this winter and will also give a large tea.

On New Mexico.
The battleship New Mexico was the scene of a brilliant gathering yesterday when Rear-Admiral Nathan Twining and Capt. John Hoon entertained with a tea and afternoon dance. It marked one of the largest affairs of the season and was the most important affair in naval circles since the return of the fleet from Hawaiian waters.

For Mrs. Etienne.
Mrs. Victor Etienne of San Francisco was yesterday guest of honor at a particularly handsome luncheon over which Mrs. Carl Leonard of Chester Place presided. The decorations were elaborate with multicolored chrysanthemums and other autumn flowers. There were plans for twenty-four guests.

In Paris.
Society will be interested to hear of the social activities of the former Mrs. Freeman Ford of Pasadena, now Mrs. Timkin, who has been enjoying a season in Paris. She has many American friends now in Europe who are entertaining her and her new husband. At a recent luncheon in her honor she was looking very grand in her priceless ables and wearing her $800,000 necklace of wonderful pearls and a diamond bracelet. Mr. and Mrs. Timkin are planning to build a mansion at Beverly Hills, upon their return from Europe.

Home from Hawaiian Islands.
Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Schellenbach (Elizabeth Mall) have returned from the Hawaiian Islands, where they enjoyed a six weeks' honeymoon trip. Their wedding was one of the important events of early October.

A Visitor.
Mrs. W. D. Withshire is a welcome visitor in this city, being a house guest of Mrs. Charles C. Carpenter of West Twenty-seventh street. She was the motif for a Japanese luncheon at which, Mrs. Carpenter was hostess on Saturday, last.

Dr. and Mrs. Bryant.
Dr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Bryant were hosts at a dinner of handsome appointments on Sunday evening, using a Thanksgiving motif—a huge pumpkin filled with all kinds of fruit to center the table. Plates were set for twenty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Bixby.
Mr. and Mrs. Jothan Bixby, Jr., were hosts last evening at a dinner party at their home in Long Beach, the guests going over with them from the afternoon dance given by Rear-Admiral Twining and Capt. Hoon on board the U.S.S. New Mexico.

Musical Supper.
A musical supper to be planned by Mrs. Roger Sterrett of Welch Place, Hollywood, on Sunday evening, next, in honor of Miss Gertrude Engert. Miss Engert is to be guest of honor at a reception at which Mrs. Anthony Stokes Bennett is to entertain shortly. Mrs. Fay Clark Bullock was hostess at a smart tea and reception in her home at the Garden Court apartments. One hundred guests called in the afternoon and 100 that evening. She was assisted by Mrs. W. S. Anderson, Mrs. Fred O. Johnson, Mrs. Anthony Stokes Bennett and Franklin Crawford.

In San Pedro.
A wedding largely attended was that of Miss Hagel Morck and William Tracy Gaffey, which was solemnized at St. Mary's Star of the Sea Church in San Pedro, Monday morning. Rev. Father de Banno officiated, and the ceremony was accompanied by nuptial mass.

Mrs. John Mel. sister of the groom, was maid of honor and Miss Lucile Watkins was bridesmaid. Little Peggy Loomis was flower girl and Henry Cabot Thomas was Mr. Gaffey's best man.

The bride wore a gown of ivory brocade with short train, and was crowned with orange blossoms. Mrs. Mel was radiant in a costume of real lace over jade green silk. Miss Watkins wore orchid silk, while the little flower girl was in white.

There was a breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Albert Mason, following the ceremony. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tracy Gaffey of San Pedro. The couple left for a wedding trip and later will be at home at the harbor.

In New Home.
A pleasing affair was the musical supper at which Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bush entertained at their new home at 1745 Morgan Place, Hollywood, last evening. Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wipthrop Spear, Mr. and Mrs. Volney Brown, Mrs. Marion Brown Reith, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cabot Thomas, Sue Anderson, Mrs. J. H. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Chapman, Gail Mills Dimmitt, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Weesle, Miss Annette Hogan, Miss Almee Torriani, Miss Adelaide Cannon and Mrs. Katherine Cannon.

Personals.
Mrs. J. J. Hummel and daughter, Miss Neola Meekins of 1203 Arapahoe street, are welcomed home after an absence of three months in the East. They visited the Grand Canyon, Niagara Falls, New York, Chicago, Kansas City, Colorado Springs and St. Louis. Miss Meekins will resume her art studies this winter.

ESTATE WOULD CHECK FLOOD CONTROL WORK

The Dominguez Estate Company charged in a complaint filed yesterday against the Los Angeles Flood Control District that work being done by the district at Compton Creek will divert the channel and cause serious damages to the property of the company. An order is asked restraining the district from proceeding with the work.

"Mistress Mary" Dresses at $12.50

Bullock's has not been able to find prettier, more unusual and distinctive wash crepe dresses at any price than these which have recently come to that Section, at Bullock's, which is given over to Inexpensive House Dresses, Third Floor, Across the Bridge-way.

Two styles have been pictured by the artist—one a long, straight-line dress, that is to be worn with a little leather belt. This dress has great, broad pockets, embroidered in basket effect; and is cut square at the neck. Colors are pale pink, rich mahogany, shadow lawn green and peacock blue.

The other, a high waist model, has an applique of contrasting color crepe leaves—is embroidered with wool yarn around neck and big pockets.

Two models in "Mistress Mary" Dresses at $10.00 are also to be found in the Section devoted to House Dresses. One of these is in short-waist effect and contrasting-color crepe/leaves have been applied upon it.

The other model at $10.00 is made of two contrasting, but harmonious colors of the crepe. It is daintily embroidered in wool and is to be worn with a little leather belt.

Today—at Bullock's—Third Floor—Across the Bridge-way.

Wool Tuxedo Scarfs $7.50 and $10.00

are, probably, the highest-value Scarfs that have ever come to the Scarf Section on the Fourth Floor—Bullock's

35 Scarfs at $7.50

—of pure wool; warm; soft; comfortable; knitted with contrasting-color bands that may be turned back to form the so becoming Tuxedo fronts.

—Another style is knitted with belt and pockets.

25 Scarfs at $10.00

—are very wide; have contrasting-color bands that may be turned back to form Tuxedo fronts; are fringed on three sides.

—All of the favored Autumn shades are represented, such as Buff, Brown, Peacock, American Beauty, Gray, Copenhagen blue.

—Now, right now, is the time to buy Christmas-Gift Scarfs and obtain exceedingly high value.

—At Bullock's—Scarf Section—Fourth Floor.

Bullock's Will Not Be Open Thursday, November 11—Armistice Day

Bullock Glove Bonds

are gifts ideal! Recipients select their own Gloves—and, thereby, are sure to select not only proper sizes, but kinds and colors.

Bullock Glove Bonds do away with Glove Exchanges, with disappointments. They mean pleased acceptance the very first thing—on Christmas morning.

Furthermore, Bullock Glove Bonds are "gitty" things, being beautifully engraved and each being enclosed in its own parchment envelope.

Glove Section—Bullock's—First Floor

Tailoring of Men's Silk Shirts

will be done, at Bullock's, at very little cost, if materials are purchased in Bullock's Shirting Silks Section, Second Floor,—and if orders be given for two or more Shirts.

This offer will continue until Christmas; and it is, indeed, one of which early advantage should be taken by those who wish to give silk shirts to men this year. It is an offer which means worth-while savings.

Just a wondrous stock of Shirting Broadcloths, Crepes and Motor Pon-gees may be drawn upon these days—at Bullock's—Second Floor.

Sheffield Silverware Special Pieces $5.00

A most attractive offering—Wednesday—in Bullock's Silverware Section on Bullock's First Floor. An offering that should prove most opportune at this time,—when Gift Giving is one's foremost thought. Silverware is always acceptable.

A few of the pieces offered at $5.00 are listed below:

Cake Baskets with Silver Handles
Fruit Bowls with Gold Lining
Sandwich Trays—Platinum Finish
Broad Trays—Platinum or Bright
—All with attractive designs in various patterns and finishes. All priced at $5, plus war tax of 5%.

To give the Boy a Sweater in his School Colors would please him beyond words—especially if that Sweater is a regular sweater that'll always look well and keep him warm. Such are these that Bullock's Boys' Store is offering at the remarkably low price of $10.00

Today—on the Fifth Floor.

PEN POINTS

Arranging to do any thing turkey this year?

What has become of the "Senate oligarchy"?

Another thing, the style was helping the older situation.

Gov. Cox has become a "violet." Can you blame him?

With the end of the campaign, no shortage has been in a relief.

But, at that, the service men will not break up the march up the aisle.

The talk of the old-time Democrats in Woodrow Wilson's party is being by this time.

Foreigners are being treated as "cows." But why?

You will never amount to anything in this world if you allow a spot on your personality to go to waste.

The official vote is still in, but at last accounts it was a short lap ahead of Debs.

Good article of clothes are in New York for $25—had they in New York is rather, and it would hardly pay to make them.

A household disappearance of $1000 in cash from a house on Fifty-seventh street this week has probably just done the week's pay.

Now a scientist says that no one can win. But he is wrong. It will be decided by the Chairman White said. He has no chance to win.

Another thing, the most of the young men go with girls who wear the short skirt and the waist, but as a rule they marry that kind.

It is announced that President Wilson will continue his tour of the Vermont coast. He is out of the job of President, but not out of the job of President.

Gen. Wrangell, the Russian, has had the $100,000 of his Russian law divided into the "penalty." He makes almost like an American.

The checking of the election returns has been a long and tedious task. Some of the candidates are taking much interest in the matter.

There are but two American States who have a larger income of more than $100,000,000. Who is the other?

PUBLIC STILL HAS SOME SAY.

Won't Pay More for Ice and Water, Says Eisenmayer.

As Result His Company Would Raise Its Storage Rates.

Hearing Over Congested Stuff Develops Heat.

Public sentiment of the affirmative kind still has its place in the sun, and ice and distilled water, at least for winter wear, may be expected to remain stationary in price.

W. G. Eisenmayer, general manager of the Los Angeles Ice and Cold Storage Company, told the State Railroad Commission yesterday under cross-examination regarding the company's application for a 25 per cent increase in cold storage rates.

Declaring that cold storage services are costing his company more than ever before, Mr. Eisenmayer went on to say that his concern ought to increase its rates for ice and distilled water, but that public sentiment will not permit.

In support of his assertion Mr. Eisenmayer submitted a long table of costs as a part of the exhibits in the case. Later on Mr. Eisenmayer added some details and figures compounds to the list of commodities for which the company ought to charge more.

JUST SHOWED 'EM. Rex Hardy, counsel for Rivers Bros., the Simpson Produce Company and various other lengths, said he thought all the local cold storage companies should be placed upon the same basis as to rates.

Mr. Hardy said he understood that the Terminal Refrigerating Company did not desire to increase its rates, and asked them if they thought it was fair, and they said they thought that it was. "I wouldn't call that an agreement,"

The Simpson Produce Company and other cold storage firms contended that cold storage business here had dropped off surprisingly in volume because the rates are high. Their representatives declared that San Francisco seems to be getting the bulk of the business, but Mr. Eisenmayer asserted that rates have nothing to do with it.

PLUS APPRECIATION. In asking for an increase in cold storage rates, the Los Angeles Ice and Cold Storage Company told the commission yesterday that it cost $1416,899 to store a ton of goods last year. Mr. Eisenmayer asserted that business has been bad since the company's rates were raised in 1913, when Southern California was bringing in large quantities of butchers' meat.

He said his company is entitled to a return of 1 per cent net on its investment. Attorneys opposed to the application for a rate increase contended that the company put most of its earnings back into extensions and betterments, and wants to make 8 per cent upon a plant valuation based on great appreciation of real estate, not upon its original investment, plus improvements.

Mr. Eisenmayer, in answer to the declaration that a uniform rate would destroy competition among the cold storage companies, said it would not, because the big factor of good service would still be the scales in favor of the company able to furnish the best service.

PICK SOME PLAYS. Some of those opposed to the proposed increase in cold storage rates expressed the opinion that the company is seeking the increase upon the showing that it is not raising the price of ice, soft drinks, freezing solution and other commodities which it retails, but that there is no assurance that the prices for these commodities will not be raised after the commission has decided the cold storage case.

The opposition picked a great many flaws in the Los Angeles Ice and Cold Storage Company's system of figuring overhead expenses, charging off depreciation, etc. Mr. Eisenmayer admitted that his system was wrong, but stated that he was making arrangements to correct it.

The case will be resumed again at 10 a. m. today, and every indication is that the application will be hotly contested, not only by commission merchants, but by rate engineers of the State Railroad Commission.

CARNIVAL PROFITS TOLD. From records from the four-day carnival held at Santa Rita Center last week were $4000, it was announced yesterday. The Santa Rita Center, recently established at 1411 North Main street, is affiliated with the Bureau of Catholic Charities, of which Rev. Father William J. Corr is director. From the funds garnered through the big carnival, a heating system will be installed in the settlement house, and other necessary additions will be made in the clinic.

The opposition picked a great many flaws in the Los Angeles Ice and Cold Storage Company's system of figuring overhead expenses, charging off depreciation, etc. Mr. Eisenmayer admitted that his system was wrong, but stated that he was making arrangements to correct it.

The case will be resumed again at 10 a. m. today, and every indication is that the application will be hotly contested, not only by commission merchants, but by rate engineers of the State Railroad Commission.

CARNIVAL PROFITS TOLD. From records from the four-day carnival held at Santa Rita Center last week were $4000, it was announced yesterday. The Santa Rita Center, recently established at 1411 North Main street, is affiliated with the Bureau of Catholic Charities, of which Rev. Father William J. Corr is director. From the funds garnered through the big carnival, a heating system will be installed in the settlement house, and other necessary additions will be made in the clinic.

BAN ADDRESSES MINORS.

Sitting Bull Asks No Favors be Shown;
Says Lasker is Child in Game.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Nov. 9.—A plea to have the National Association of Minor Leagues appoint a committee of three to meet with a similar committee from the National and American leagues in a final effort to avert a baseball war and form a new governing body to control the game was made to the minor leaguers in convention here tonight.

President Ban Johnson of the American League and G. W. Miller of Chicago, attorney for the league, appeared before the minor leaguers and urged them to agree to the plan to either side in the major-league dispute, but asked that a committee be appointed to act in the event the National League could be persuaded to join in the proposal.

BAN TELLS THEM.
President Johnson declared he was in favor of granting the minor leagues equal representation on the proposed new national commission, sharing equal power with American and National leagues.

The American League executive said the management of baseball should remain in the hands of men who have given their lives to the game. He declared his opposition to the Lasker plan and urged the minor leaguers to remain neutral in the major-league fight if they decided not to endorse the proposal to appoint a representative committee in an effort to bring about harmony.

INSIDE DOPE.
After revealing the inside story of the situation which resulted in the break of the major league, Attorney Johnson declared he was in favor of granting the minor leagues equal representation on the proposed new national commission, sharing equal power with American and National leagues.

JOHNSON, DESERTED BY HIS WEALTHY BACKERS, MAY FIND LEAGUE REDUCED TO MINOR.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Baseball's worst slaughter is about to be staged under the aegis of the National Association of Professional Baseball Players.

Football was regarded as America's roughest game, but it is pale and polite compared with what is about to happen.

Federal League hostilities were regarded as some little scrap, yet hardly was worthy to be classed as more than a certain-raiser to the impending fracas.

In that, baseball neophytes were pitted against the crafty, case-hardened politicians of the great national pastime.

Many believed that fight never should have been allowed by the commission.

In this one it is politician vs. politician with old John Bullion swinging the towel.

Ban Johnson is up against the toughest of the tough in his last fight he had the financial backing of such men as Comiskey, Ruppert and Harp.

In this battle they are allied against him, and with Comiskey, Ruppert and Harp are Charles Stoneham, owner of the Philadelphia Athletics, and Charles Ebbets, owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The combined resources of these men exceed $10,000,000.

Aligned with these in the new league is another of the baseball's few really wealthy clubs, the Chicago Cubs, backed by William Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs.

To wage a successful war, Johnson must enlist new backing, and a vast amount of it.

Standing among the ruins of his once great empire, the fallen club finds it reduced to five clubs—Detroit, Cleveland, Washington, St. Louis and Philadelphia, an almost pitiful nucleus.

All these teams, with the exception of Cleveland, would have been badly this season but for the money which they drew playing against the Yankees in New York.

Through their home turnouts, Detroit and Cleveland must have contending clubs to prove profitable towns. Washington never has been anything but a fair baseball burg.

St. Louis is good about two months in the season, and Philadelphia always has been a "white elephant" in the American League.

Any baseball organization without New York, Chicago and Boston is a secondary league.

Johnson says these cities will be retained in the American League, leaving the circuit as now constituted. This would mean three teams in Chicago and three in New York.

G.N.Y. alone can stand the strain of such intensive competition, and outside capital may be loath to engage in such an apparently precarious venture against such a levitation as the new National League.

With the exception of what Johnson terms the "five loyal clubs," baseball in the East some time ago pronounced Ban "intolerable," and turned to the self-proclaimed John Heydler as the logical leader in the present emergency.

The new twelve-club league will be a novelty for two or three years, and therefore measurably successful. But it is hardly likely to prove permanent.

Ultimately, there will be a return to the present order of two eight-club circuits and a restoration of the world series.

But for the first season or two the new National with its tremendous circuit, and illustrious civilian board of control, will overshadow the American, should the latter survive. The new National League will probably invade Detroit or Cleveland.

Ultimate success of the civilian board of control, desirable possibly in the present crisis, is very doubtful.

There are regrettable features to this baseball Armageddon, but it may be for the best of the game. Public was beginning to weary of the world series, if not actually with it, with suspicion, and the stereotyped moves of a hard and fast organization.

Miller explained his opposition to the adoption of the Lasker plan. He said the plan had its inception in the idea that "something must be done with the public to offset the scandal revealed in the world's series of 1919."

"I think the baseball-loving public is as hard to 'bunk' as the average baseball man," Mr. Miller said, "and if we are going to reorganize baseball, let us reorganize it on a sound, sane and practical basis that will get us somewhere and not with the idea of deceiving the public into believing that we are doing something that we are not doing."

LASKER PLAN.
The first conception of the Lasker plan is that a commission of eminent and distinguished gentlemen who stand so high in the estimation of the public that the very mention of their names will carry with it an evidence of good faith, be selected to take charge of organized baseball. Do you think these men could come anywhere nearer stamping gambling out of baseball than you men who have been in the game all your lives? We think that the men who are to constitute the supreme court of baseball, or at least a majority of them, should be practical baseball men."

The minor leaguers adjourned without taking any action on the recommendation of the American League officials, but the sentiment prevailed tonight that the Lasker plan would receive no consideration from the minors at this time. August Herrmann, owner of the Cincinnati Nationals and former chairman of the National Commission, will address the minor leaguers tomorrow.

Pacific Fleet Pigskin-Chasers Work Out at Tournament Park.

Art Griggs and Rawlings Play for All-Stars.

With three more crack ball players added to the collection of luminaries by Joe Pirrone, the Spalding booker, the All Stars are confident of success in their game with the White Sox (colored) baseball team at the Sox Park, East Fourth and Anderson streets, tomorrow afternoon.

The new men are Art Griggs, first baseman of the Los Angeles club; Johnnie Rawlings, of the Philadelphia Nationals; and Catcher Joe Jenkins of the Salt Lake club.

Each club has won one game, and tomorrow's brawl will decide the series. Frank Schellenback, spitball heaver of Vernon, will hurl for the All Stars, while Bullet Hogan, latest acquisition of the Sox, will bend them over for his team.

Preceding the game there will be a field meet, starting promptly at 2 o'clock. "Home Run" (Moore and Bullet) Hogan of the Sox nine will attempt to put the ball over the fence with a fungo bat, while Stumpy Arington will try the same thing with the side the naked arm.

Circling the bases, accuracy throwing for catchers, long distance throwing and best time first base will make up the rest of the field day stunts.

INVITE FRENCH TEAM.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—Dr. George W. Orton, manager of the University of Pennsylvania relay carnival, announced today he had sent a formal invitation to the athletic directors at the University of Paris inviting a French track team to compete in the big relay meet, Franklin Field next April.

It is the first time a French team has been invited to compete in the meet.

EDWARD SAGE DEAD.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Announcement was made here today of the death last Saturday of Edward Sage, bow oar of the famous Columbia crew, which won the visitors' cup at the Henley regatta on the Thames River in 1917. The death of Mr. Sage leaves Harry S. Ridgely as the only surviving member of the great Columbia crew.

CHRISTY IS NOW ON THE UPGRADE.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—After a year's fight against tuberculosis, Christy Mathewson, one-time major-league star pitcher, today was reported recovering at Saranac Lake.

Although he still spends his days reclining in a darkened room and his strength will not yet permit of the fresh-air cure, the affected right lung has improved under gas treatment, his fever has vanished and he is gaining in weight and strength, his physicians said.

GOBS PRACTICE ON TURF.

The center of football interest shifted yesterday to Tournament Park, where Coach Jonas Ingram of the Pacific Fleet football eleven had his meat bruisers gambling about on the greenward, preparing for the game tomorrow with the Army team from March Field.

After the workout, which was devoted almost solely to signal practice, the men were taken to the Hotel Maryland, where they will stay until after the game with the wearers of the olive drab.

With the exception of a few minor bruises, the Navy players are all in good shape. Jordan, the old Carlisle end, has a sore finger, which was stepped on in a scrimmage at the Sub Base a couple of weeks ago, and some of the others have charley horses of varying degrees.

Managers and coaches of the two teams got together yesterday and arranged for the officials who will referee in the pigskin festival. Al Badenoch will referee, Glenn Whittier will umpire, Jack Wells will serve in the capacity of head linesman and Harry Minor has obligated himself to fulfill the duties of field judge.

Admiral Rodman, with nineteen admirals and captains from the Pacific Fleet will attend the game, adding much dignity and considerable prestige to the occasion. In the evening there will be a grand military ball at the Hotel Maryland.

Nothing has been heard from the headquarters of the Army eleven at March field, but it is presumed that it will put in an appearance at Tournament Park today, in order that the men may accustom themselves to the turf. Coach Ingram says his team will average 140 pounds to the man. His behemoths have shriveled terribly since adding football to their list.

COLIMA PUTS THORPE AWAY.

Only Lands One Blow, but it is All That's Needed.

Northerner Gets on His Feet and Manages to Finish.

Papke and Kramer Put Up Real Fight of Evening.

BY KAY OWE.

Bert Colima hit Harvey Thorpe just once in the main event out at Tuley's fight, but once was enough. Thorpe rose gracefully in the air a couple of feet and landed on the back of his neck with a loud bang.

This solid right failed to finish the fight, however. Thorpe scrambled to his feet after about 10 seconds and battled his way through the three rounds to a finish. The knockdown was scored early in the second round. And it was the only telling blow that Colima managed to land.

GOOD ENOUGH.
The San Francisco boy gave a pretty fair account of himself. He hit Colima in a wide assortment of places and did it more or less frequently, but the blows didn't have the kick. In the first round Thorpe did most of the punching. Early in the second Whittier's prize across with his knuckledown. Thorpe was considerably more cautious after that and the fight slowed down. The men scrapped at catchweight, Colima failing to make weight at 145 pounds, and standing the ring at 154.

Colima is a strong bird with a wicked punch but anybody that accuses the young man of being clever is doing him a grave injustice. He sort of sticks around waiting for a chance to hit; if it comes, good night; if it doesn't, well, it doesn't, that's all. Thorpe appeared to be a crafty old boy but not a good enough. The decision went to Colima on his lone swat and he deserved it.

Chet Neff won the semis-finals. It was a weak affair with Morris apparently trying but not doing much and Neff making valiant use of his elbow.

George Drew gained a decision over Gene Watson. Watson claimed a fowl early in the proceedings but the referee couldn't see it and ordered the fight to go on. On it went and Watson recovered in remarkably fast time. Drew did most of the leading with Watson doing a sort of goose-step to the rear that threatened to carry him into the back yard every time he started.

A REAL BATTLE.
Young Papke and Salter Kramer put up the real stuff of the evening. Kramer forced the battle from the start and gave Papke a sublime waste to absorb. Papke fought with a bored air, as though the whole thing was rather tiresome, but he certainly woke up now and then and did fight. Every once in a while the two birds would get together and exchange punches until looked as though they would both drop dead. The draw decision was peculiar.

Edwards finished off Chappie in a very medium bout. The men were badly matched.

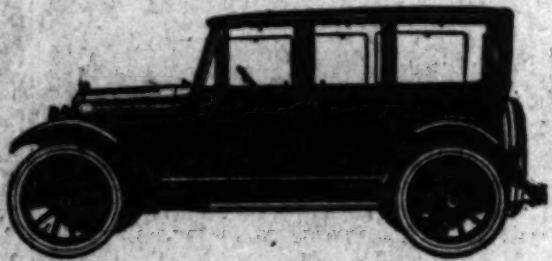

Leo Houck and Eddie Burke traveled in a good draw. Houck

Self-starting Self-tuning Self-overhauling Self-sufficient!

MOST motors start to deteriorate from the first mile. The Willys-Knight Sleeve-Valve Motor gets better. It rides further towards perfection instead of away from it. It actually improves with use. It is not only self-starting, it is self-tuning. It is literally its own engineer. It is continuously overhauling itself. It transforms carbon into compression, and accumulates power in the process of using it. It represents the utmost of mechanical excellence in a motor yet reached by the human mind.

Squads Tied for Lead in the Conference Games.

"Stanford Spirit" Banked on to Upset Dope.

(SPECIAL REPORT.)
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 9.—Saturday's victories leave Stanford and the University of California tied for the lead in the Pacific Coast Conference, with two conference games won and none lost by each eleven. In ten days the two teams will meet in their annual "big game," and this year not only will the championship of the conference be decided, but also the team which will represent the West on New Year's Day at Pasadena.

It is rather interesting to compare the two eleven. California has a machine built up by Andy Smith after six years. Perfect interference together with men who are veterans, have played together for years, and who know the game thoroughly must be compared by a team of comparatively inexperienced players who have either never played the American game before or are former Rugby stars. California has the heaviest team on the Coast, and the Blue and Gold team is just as fast, perhaps faster, than the Cardinal.

HAS WON ALL.
California has won every game played this season by overwhelming scores; Stanford has lost three games against comparatively weaker teams. California won last Saturday over what was supposed to be the strongest team in the Northwest by the score of 49 to 6. Stanford just nosed out the weakest team by a 3-0 score.

Then what chance has Stanford against California? Does Stanford expect to win against such overpowering odds?

Stanford does not expect to win from California. But that intangible thing known as "Stanford Spirit" has been known to upset the odds. There are a good many people who believe that the so-called "Stanford Spirit" and claim that there is no difference between that and any other university's fighting spirit. That may be so, but nevertheless, the Stanford student body is relying upon their team in the big game for the same fight which held Oregon for four downs inside the Cardinal's yard line and then scored a touchdown by straight football four minutes later.

CAN WESLEYANS STOP BRADSHAW?

HE'S ALL SET FOR THE TRAPSHOOTERS.

With the many new improvements, Fred H. Teeple, secretary of the Los Angeles Gun Club, is all ready to take care of the many shooters who will contend in the special fifty-target handicap next Sunday. Trophies will be up for the winners.

Other events on the program will be the third round of twenty-five targets, added bird handicaps on the B. H. Dye trophy, double shooting and miss-and-out events.

OFFERS WAD FOR LEONARD FIGHT.

(BY A. P. KENT WIRE.)
MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Nov. 9.—The Milwaukee Boxing Club today offered $50,000 for the proposed fight for the lightweight title between Benny Leonard and Ritchie Mitchell, according to announcement by Mitchell's manager.

GOING TO GIVE TOM A NEW SHOTGUN.

Tom Mix, the well-known portrayer of western roles in moving pictures, is to be presented with a fine-looking double-barreled trap gun by the members of the Al Malabik Temple, declares George T. Cline.

The gun is to be given Mix in appreciation by the Al Malabik members for the actor's services in the recent show at Orange County Park.

WILD CATS SURE TOUGH PICKING.

Arizona Felines to Tackle the Sagehens.

Grid Battle at Claremont Next Saturday.

Coach Nixon's Lads Are All in Good Condition.

A few interesting facts concerning the strong University of Arizona eleven, which plays Coach Eugene W. Nixon's Pomona College team at Claremont Saturday, found their way to Los Angeles yesterday. Certain rumors to the effect that the Arizona outfit is a band of wild men who play football as if they were cannibals have been steadily refuted recently, and the figures now on hand seem to give added weight to these rumors.

J. F. McKale, who was something of a gridiron star in his younger days, is handling the destiny of the Wildcats, and so far he seems to have done very well. The Arizona eleven has played four games to date. In this quartet of contests they have rung up a grand total of 314 points to their opponents' 27.

FOURTH TIME.
Saturday's game will be the fourth meeting of the two teams. Back in 1914 the Wildcats took a heart-breaking game from the Sagehens, 7 to 6. In 1916 the Arizona eleven again triumphed, 7 to 3, in a fierce contest. Last year the men from Claremont journeyed out into the desert and bumped the Wildcats for a 19 to 7 victory. It was the first time the Arizona eleven had been defeated that year.

Six of the men in the line-up Saturday have been picked on All-Southwestern eleven. This includes players from three States, Arizona, New Mexico and West Texas. Last year's captain, Lynch, is again in the line-up this season. "Slippery" Sinker, the distinctive quarterback, who is rated as one of the greatest players in the West, is piloting the Wildcats this year. He weighs only 140 pounds but is faster than chain lightning.

The Wildcats rely principally on end runs and the forward pass. With this style of play predominating, the game Saturday should be spectacular. Coach Nixon's men are all in good shape and ready for the game.

Tickets are on sale at R. H. Dye's, Spalding's and Turf-Lyon's. The Arizona team will line up as follows: Woodford (146), left end; Lynch (170), left tackle; Carpenter (174), left guard; Clymer (180), center; Barclay (174), right guard; Smith (174), right tackle; Marler (186), right end; Stonaker (161), quarter; Harno (155), left half; Cusick (160), right half; Hobbs (165), full.

CALLAHAN BROTHERS BATTLE SATURDAY.

(BY A. P. KENT WIRE.)
LAWRENCE (Mass.) Nov. 9.—The struggle of the brothers Callahan, "Mike" of Princeton, and "Tim" of Yale, as the captains and opposing centers of the two varsity eleven when they meet in the Palmer Stadium at Princeton, next Saturday, will have as a witness again their mother, Mrs. Mary Case Callahan of this city. "Of course, I shall sit on the Princeton side of the field this year," the mother said, explaining that she sat on the Yale side last year. "Of course, I may go over to the Yale side of the field before the game is over," she added.

DOC SOILAND PLANS TO TRAIN YOUNGSTERS.

Despite most of his time being devoted to his professional duties, Dr. Albert Soiland, skipper of the Viking IV, is planning on teaching seamanship and navigation to the younger class at the Newport Harbor Yacht Club during the winter season.

It is Dr. Soiland's intention to have the club well prepared for next year during the racing season by breaking in new crews aboard his schooner, considered one of the finest in Southern Pacific waters. The Viking IV probably will sail in the race to Honolulu next year.

EXPECT BIG SEASON IN THE LINKS GAME.

With Eddie Loos and Leo Diegel, star golf professionals from the East, wintering here, predictions for one of the best seasons in Southern California history are made by Ed Geyer "pro" of the Spalding indoor golf school. These men will probably play in the open championships of the South, making this event one of the classic ever staged in these parts.

KOSLOFF TO PRODUCE.

PROJECTS A SERIES OF DANCE SPECTACLES IN VAUDEVILLE.

By Grace Kingsley.

And now that indefatigable worker, Theodore Kosloff, in addition to his other activities, is entitled to have the word, "producer" written after his name. Of course, he's had that right for some time as regards his own spectacular dance productions, in which he, himself, appeared on the Orpheum and Keith circuits, but he has just made it known that he is about to launch other dance productions with his star pupils as the steppers.

Not satisfied with working in motion pictures with Cecil De Mille productions at the Lasky studio, and running his dancing school at Trinity Auditorium, Mr. Kosloff is now on the first of a series of spectacles all to be Russian in character, destined for vaudeville.

The first one is to be made up of ballet and Russian folk dances, and while he, himself, will not take part, students whom he has been training during the past two years will present his dance ideals.

This spectacular spectacle has been booked to make its bow before the Shriners' entertainment at Trinity Auditorium, November 15, and later will show at the opening of the Ambassador Hotel.

Afterward it is destined to tour the Orpheum circuit. The folk dances are most unusual in character, inasmuch as they are those of Southern Russia, which have not been widely exploited on the stage.

The dancers who will take part are the most accomplished graduates of Mr. Kosloff's school. Included are Estelle Reed, Arnold Vason, Lorraine Seitz, Ella Kreiger, Flower Hagar, Marion Forbes, Grace Gordon, Grace Martin, Helen Sheldon, Margarette Beers, Vera Leish and Priscilla Cotton. The music for the act is being arranged by M. Ivanoff.

While Mr. Kosloff's picture activities have been confined largely to advisory matters in connection with De Mille productions, it is said that he is in Mr. De Mille's latest production, "Forbidden Fruit," in one of the most important in the picture.

FAMOUS STARS TO MAKE FILMS ABROAD.

Douglas Fairbanks and his wife, Mary Pickford, are going abroad to make at least one picture, each, according to the announcement of Mr. Fairbanks, yesterday in course of an interview.

"Of course we're not going to quit pictures," said Mr. Fairbanks. "We expect to make one or two more pictures each, here, and then leave for Southern France, probably about the first of February next. I'm going to make 'The Three Musketeers' over there, and Miss Pickford has three stories, any one, or perhaps two, of which she may decide to make. One of these, and perhaps the only one, she will make will be 'Little Lord Fauntleroy' to be filmed, of course, in England."

"No, we don't intend to leave this country for good. We're going to make just a feature or two over there, and then come home."

Mr. Fairbanks stated that he and Mrs. Fairbanks are to leave today for the Grand Canyon on a two or three-day jaunt, and as a sort of vacation.

Dark Doubt Note.

William D. Taylor says he captured a thirty-one-inch rainbow trout during his recent vacation, but he can't prove it. He didn't have his picture taken with it.

Scena Owen Leaves.

Scena Owen, who has just finished work in the Fox feature, "Between Two Thieves," in which she played the feminine lead, opposite William Russell, will leave today for New York City to be gone until the first of next year. Accompanying her will be her small daughter Patricia. Before returning home, Miss Owen will probably visit Florida, and she expects to return by way of Spokane, her former home.

Schulberg Announces Expansion.

Important announcements regarding expansion of production were made yesterday by R. F. Schulberg, president of the Katherine MacDonald Pictures Corporation, who has just arrived from New York. These announcements were to the effect that a new corporation is to be formed by himself and his associates, including E. F. Pineman, vice-president of the company above named, to make a series of feature pictures, with all-star casts. This corporation is to be formed in the West, and is to work in studio space to be secured shortly.

Mr. Schulberg will return to New York today, leaving the details of organization to Mr. Pineman. He expects to return within a few weeks to look actively after production matters. Later he expects to build or buy a studio in the West. Two stories have already been secured, and work on these by all-star casts is to be commenced as soon as studio space is secured.

Another enterprise of the Schulberg concern is the making of a series of biblical pictures in Palestine, but this will not be undertaken until late next year.

Rockett Got There.

"Not for nothing as it turns out did that enterprising young man, R. R. Rockett, president of the Rockett Film Corporation, go back to New York. He arrived home last evening over the Santa Fe from New York, where he has been, during the past six weeks, arranging for the Rockett productions, and raising the story markets of the world for new vehicles. Mr. Rockett took with him to New York the first Rockett special feature, "The Truant Husband," an Alfred Larson Terhune story filmed with an all-star cast including Marion Hamilton, Betty Blythe, Francis Sullivan and others, and he brought back a release through W. W. Hodgkinson, a contract for three feature comedies, half a dozen five-reel western pictures, and an option to make as many American pictures as the company can find time to sandwich in between. These American production pictures are part of a plan of the Rockett company to film the human interest stories in United States history from colonial times to the present, and if they prove successful, as the demand seems to indicate, may lead to a series of feature pictures to be made in one and two-reel form.

The Rockett productions will be made in a studio yet to be selected prior to the building of a new plant.

Altogether a very convincing interpretation of one of the strongest of Ibsen's plays.

EARL MEEKER IN

EBELL RECITAL.

The recital last evening by Earl Meeker at the Elbell Clubhouse presented, besides some excellent music, a variety of selections seldom heard here and hence of added interest to local audiences.

Mr. Meeker has a vibrant and well controlled voice, which he used to fine dramatic effect. His tone is pure and ever behind his forte passages, even one feels a force in reserve.

Among his most popular numbers was the "Devil's Love Song," which he ended with a peal of demoniacal laughter.

Artistically the three Spanish folk songs of Alvarez were the most notable. There was a Cadman on the program, "Doe Skin Blanket," a whose effect was not as brilliant as trip," his p. a. s. e.

SAILOR JAZZ BAND ON SPEEDY CRUISE.

It takes these gobs of jazz to satisfy those audiences down at the Burbank this week. Ten generous sailors from the U.S.S. Texas with their band prove it. There's nothing sinking in their syncopation. It's all pepped up like a ship on inspection day. And the applause gives them a rating of 100 per cent, after everything, including many encores, is over.

At the same time the regular Burbank revue, "The Me," isn't just a small tugboat either. It affords a pleasant little cruise in the familiar waters of tunes, jokes and Baby Dolls, with Ed Armstrong and the other principals steering the course.

Rogers in "Honest Hutch."

Living up to a fortune instead of a reputation is the predicament in which Will Rogers finds himself amusingly involved in "Honest Hutch," which is having a second showing at the Palace Theatre. "Old Hutch" isn't done a lick of work in twenty years. The shock he lives in is a disgrace. His wife works like a slave. Their clothes are no more than rags. Hutch is the joke of the town. Suddenly he finds $25,000 buried in a box along the river bank. Hutch knows that if he ever flashed a $1000 bill in the village the natives would put him in jail, so he decides to become respectable, work, save, and thus prepare them for his wealth.

Farnum Picture Second Week.

William Farnum's "Drag Harlan" is now in the second week at the Symphony Theatre, with the Sunshine comedy, "An Elephant's Nightmare," as an accompanying production. Jack Cooper is starred in the comedy.

Farnum appears as a daring gunman in the West, who settles feuds and proves the conquering love-maker. Jackie Saunders is the heroine.

New Gore-Tenue House.

Construction of a new theater by Gore Brothers and Sol Lesser is announced. This house will be located in the heart of the business district of Anaheim. It will hold 1400 seats, and be entirely modern. It is to have a stage suitable for the presentation of road attractions and vaudeville.

An alliance probably will be made with either the Shuberts or Marc Klaw to house road shows several nights a week.

And if all their comings and goings must be noted, it's only fair to mention that the Shuberts or Marc Klaw to house road shows several nights a week.

Supreme Court Liquor Ruling Has Quick Effect Here.

Federal Attorney to Dismiss Several Prosecutions.

Whisky Inquiry Drags; Several Given Immunity.

As a result of the decision of the United States Supreme Court that persons may have liquor in places other than their homes, it intended for personal use and secured legally, a number of pending liquor prosecutions will be dismissed, it was stated yesterday at the Federal Building.

If a man is caught with a pint of whisky in his hip pocket, all he had to say, it would now seem, is that he is taking it from storage somewhere to his home for his own personal use, and it will be up to the government to prove otherwise. The opinion places an almost insuperable obstacle in the path of the federal officers, according to members of the enforcement force. The decision, however, will not allow individuals to take liquor from storage to road houses, as it must be consumed in the home. Neither will it operate, in favor of smuggling whisky across the border, for the punishment for that offense is heavy.

U. S. Atty. O'Connor expressed the opinion, however, yesterday that none of the men who have either pleaded guilty or been found guilty by a jury on transit charges and fined will be able to secure a return of their money.

Regarding the so-called whisky quiz, Mr. O'Connor stated yesterday that he has definitely determined not to call the Federal grand jury on a date in advance of the regular meeting day, Friday. A portion of the day will be spent in hearing the testimony of several witnesses on the whisky situation, the balance in considering routine matters, he stated.

If any indictments are returned, it will not be until a week from Friday, according to the present arrangement, Mr. O'Connor said.

The defendants, he further indicated, will not number to exceed four or five, and the charges will be covered by the general charge of conspiracy to violate the prohibition amendment and the Volstead law, with several overt acts specified.

It is possible that one of the indictments will have to do with the asserted unlawful use of wine for sacramental purposes, but that is dependent upon reports of the special agents that have not yet been submitted to the United States Attorney.

About a half dozen witnesses have been before the grand jury and they have been granted immunity, not as a matter of any official action, but the mere fact that they have voluntarily so appeared takes them out of the category of possible defendants.

SLAYS OFFICER; HIMSELF SLAIN.

drunk out through the neighborhood. I was probably a mile off the main road and was near another road when an automobile dashed up and the officers jumped out and aimed their guns in my face. I did not know the driver of the yellow car was dead until the officers took me to the morgue. I don't know the lad and had never seen him before to-day.

Morris was captured by Deputy Sheriff Cooper and Townsend and Detectives Erven and Hickok.

SHERIFF IN AIRPLANE

After McCabe had shot Constable Gilden, telephone messages were sent to all surrounding towns and to the Los Angeles Sheriff to block his escape. While en route, 250 strong, sent out from Lancaster, Palmdale, San Bernardino, Bakersfield and Ventura were closing their net on the fleeing slayer. Sheriff Cline sent Deputy Sheriff Fox, No. 10, and Sheriff Anderson, Sheriff Wright, Girvan, Bright and Couts to assist in the hunt. Sheriff Cline himself left for the desert scene in an airplane from the Chaplin field. The Sheriff's airplane and an airplane attached to the forest ranger service hovered over the vicinity until after the killing of McCabe.

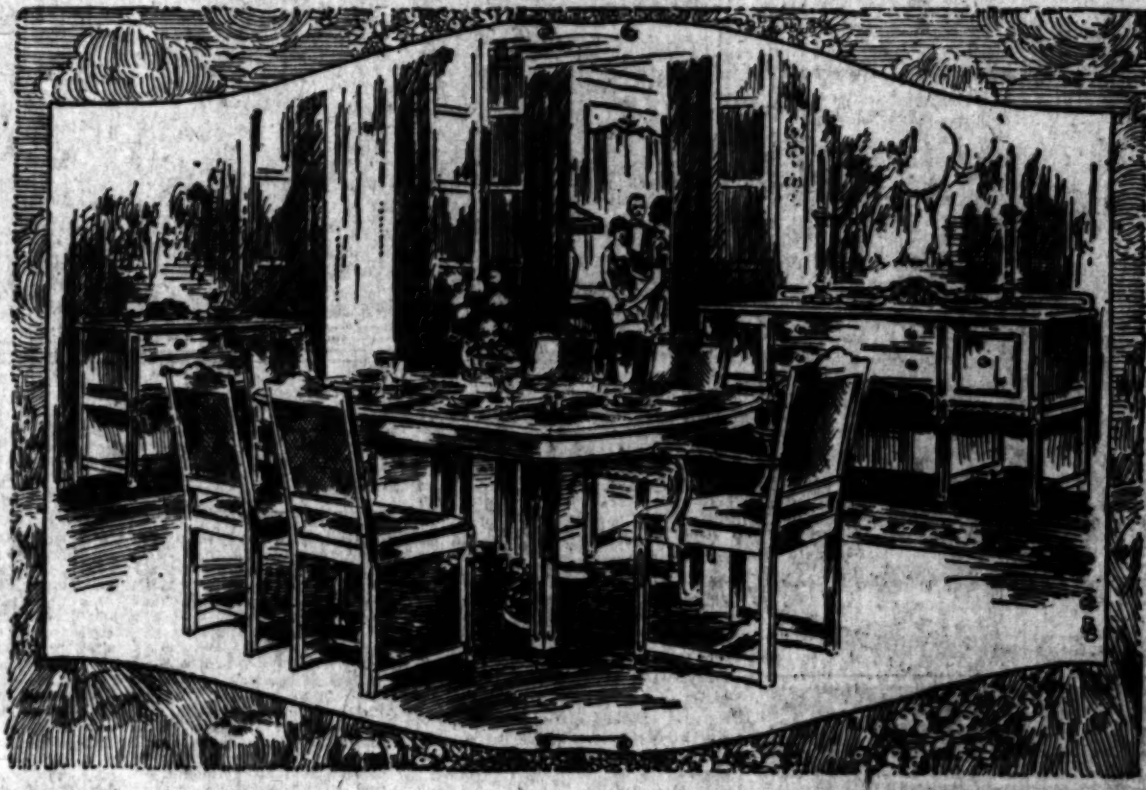

McCabe is believed to have left Oakland several days ago, headed toward Los Angeles. He probably spent Sunday night in Fresno and stopped at Mojave Monday night. At Mojave he purchased a can of yellow paint and changed the color of the stolen automobile. When the Lancaster officers inspected the car in front of the restaurant the paint was still wet.

After Morris left the car, a few miles south of Lancaster, McCabe headed for Palmdale. In the meantime many parties of armed men were tightening their net around him. Two and a half miles north of Palmdale, McCabe left the highway and started eastward across the desert, leaving tell-tale automobile tracks in the sand behind him. Two miles east of the road, a small group of armed citizens from Palmdale found the abandoned automobile. McCabe had driven it into a pear orchard and left it, choosing to escape on foot.

The Palmdale party, four in number, had left their automobile and were following the footprints left by McCabe. A mile east of the abandoned automobile, the bandit's head suddenly appeared above the greenwood clumps fifteen feet from them. The pursued bandit fired three shots from his revolver at Special Deputy Will Sufletton, who was armed with a 45-30 high-powered rifle. When McCabe's head appeared again, Sufletton fired, killing the bandit instantly. McCabe's body, with the top of his head shot away, was found sprawling on his hands. In his hand, with the hammer cocked and with his finger still on the trigger, was a .22 caliber revolver. Only one cartridge, the last of his ammunition, remained in the chamber. The bodies of Constable Gilden and McCabe were taken to Lancaster and turned over to the Deputy Coroner there.

MAY FIX THIRD STREET TUNNEL

Board of Works Will Take Up Estimates Today.

Widening Must Await Opening of Route on Second.

Can Put in Air Fans Without Hindrance to Traffic.

The Board of Public Works will today consider suggested improvements, including widening of the Third-street tunnel and will receive from the office of the City Engineer cost estimates for the proposed changes.

"While we realize that conditions in the Third-street tunnel should be improved to handle increased travel occasioned by the growth of the city," said President O'Brien of the Board of Public Works yesterday, "any proposed widening of the tunnel must wait, at least until the completion of the Second-street tunnel, for traffic conditions would not permit the congestion which would follow the complete closing now of the Third-street tunnel."

"Many plans have been suggested for improving of the Third-street tunnel, and in my opinion a pedestrian subway to be built under the foot of the present tunnel, with consequent removal of the present sidewalks, would do more than any one other change to relieve the situation."

TILE WOULD BE COSTLY. "We are securing estimates of the cost of installing ventilating shafts with suction fans to carry off vapors and smoke which are the cause of much complaint. If the city could afford to line the tunnel with white tile it would be a great improvement, but the cost of the tile alone for the job would be more than $150,000, according to the engineer's estimates."

The cost of the proposed widening of the tunnel twelve feet on the south side, which has been proposed, would, according to estimates received in the office of the City Engineer, be about $550,000, not including damages to be paid for the destruction of the Anderson Hotel and other property, nor damage to other property. It is probable that the entire cost of the widening would be about $1,000,000, and opponents of the plan contend that even then it would be dangerous to permit more than the present two lanes of vehicles to move through the tunnel. According to the cost estimates of the City Engineer's office the excavation work for the proposed widening of the tunnel would cost $147,751, new concrete construction work cost $28,026, brickwork $83,294, while the cost of removing old work would be $27,516.

CALLED UNNECESSARY. The Business Men's Co-operative Association originally filed a complaint several months ago with the City Council against the "unsightly, noxious, ventilated and unsanitary condition of the Third-street tunnel with a request that consideration be given to making improvements. While present conditions, including high cost of materials and the existing construction of the Second-street tunnel, would not permit any widening of the Third-street tunnel now, even if the plan met with city approval, it is believed that the Board of Public Works is anxious to take every step possible to improve the condition of the tunnel.

The Business Men's Co-operative Association, which has petitioned the city for a tunnel, and which has been successful in securing a tunnel, is now in a position to make a complete closing of the structure for months, the installation of fans and similar changes could be made, President O'Brien said yesterday, without interfering with the movement of traffic.

LOWDEN AIDE HERE. Illinois Fire Marshal Studying Protective Methods on Coast.

J. G. Gamber of Springfield, Ill., who managed Gov. Lowden's 1916 gubernatorial campaign, and who this year had charge of the Lowden Presidential campaign in Illinois, reached Los Angeles yesterday with his wife and daughter, and is staying at the Hotel Clark. Mr. Gamber is fire marshal for the State of Illinois, and while on the coast, will visit the principal cities to study fire prevention methods.

As private secretary to Alty-Green, Gamber played an important part in the politics of Illinois. He was one of the managers of the Harding campaign there following the Chicago convention. He will remain in Los Angeles until December 1, when he will leave for New York to attend a convention of fire chiefs from all parts of the United States, December 5, 6 and 10.

PORT TONNAGE SHOWS GROWTH.

Also Represents More Money Than Last Year, Harbor Board Reports.

A total of $22,570, tons of freight, valued at $15,175,152, was handled at Los Angeles Harbor during August, according to a detailed report made public yesterday by the Board of Harbor Commissioners. This was an increase of 11,126 tons, compared to August, 1913, when a valuation increase of $2,627,185.

During the month 296 commercial vessels of a total net tonnage of 266,745 used the harbor facilities.

The total imports for the month were valued at $426,771, while the exports were valued at $453,932.

TO TESTIFY AT TRIAL OF MRS. PEETE.

Mrs. Gregory, Friend of the Denton Case Defendant, Says She Will Come Here.

Mrs. Ida L. Gregory, Denver court assistant and friend of Mrs. Louise L. Peete, announced last night in the Colorado city that she is preparing to come to Los Angeles to testify at Mrs. Peete's trial for the murder of Jacob C. Denton. Mrs. Gregory visited Mrs. Peete here immediately after the supposed date of the murder and stayed for a time with the accused woman in the Catalina-street house where Denton's body later was found concealed in the basement.

She has notified Dist. Atty. Woolsey that she will appear to testify, said Mrs. Gregory, but told him she would prefer not to make the trip before the 22nd inst.

Mrs. Gregory will be active in conducting her own defense. This was shown yesterday when she held a consultation with the County Jail with Public Defender Wood and Deputy Scott. For several hours the three went over details of the case and made voluminous notes. Mrs. Peete was most active in compiling these.

"Would Mrs. Peete talk to newspaper reporters?" "Certainly," came the reply, "about the weather, the League of Nations and the approaching celebration of Armistice Day."

As to her own case she had nothing to say except that if she had saved the lives of all the people in Los Angeles she would not want so much publicity as she has had as the result of the charges against her. In spite of an intimation that her trial may be postponed from the 25th inst., the date set, because of the possibility that one of the four defendants accused of the murder of McCullough Graydon of Venice may ask for a separate trial, thus extending the time allowed for trial by Judge Willis, Mr. Wood went ahead with the plans for Mrs. Peete's defense. He declined to discuss the matter.

SAYS PARTY IS NOT FOR CONFISCATION.

CHRISTENSEN, FARMER-LABOR LEADER, DEFINES STAND ON PROPERTY RIGHTS.

Taking exception to an interpretation placed upon part of his remarks by certain of his hearers at the Labor Temple last Sunday, Parley P. Christensen, who was the Presidential nominee of the Farmer-Labor party, yesterday issued a statement denying that he or his party advocates virtual or direct confiscation of property and defining their stand on property rights. The statement follows:

"The Farmer-Labor party stands for reconstruction and not for destruction in any form. We will create, not confiscate. Our platform declares for public ownership and democratic operation. The right of labor to an increasing share in the responsibilities and management of industry; application of this principle to be developed with the experience of actual operation. In other words, by the help of experience shall our feet be guided. In the light of our platform and our position on industrial democracy it is plain to see that to say we stand for confiscation is not only far-fetched, but wholly contrary to our principles and platform."

Prisoners Tell Grand Jury All About Jail Life.

The jail committee of the county grand jury yesterday inspected the County Jail and interviewed men and women prisoners in regard to conditions. Members of the committee refused to comment on their findings, and stated that their report would be included in the jury's final report, which will not be made public until the end of this year.

It was also reported that the jail committee will investigate conditions in the City Jail within a few days.

POW PARK CAR LINE. The Central Labor Council yesterday petitioned the Board of Public Utilities to extend the Vermont-avenue car line into Griffith Park. Chief Engineer Osborne of the board will make a report on the feasibility of extending the Los Angeles Railway to extend its line. The park is now reached from the end of the car line by municipal buses.

DEATH ENDS DIVORCE SUIT. The death of Aaron G. Dworsky, reported in Judge Willis's court yesterday, took off the calendar the divorce suit against Sarah D. Dworsky. He had charged his wife with desertion.
